A REMARKABLE LEGISLATURE.

TENNESSEE'S REPRESENTATIVES, HAVING DONE ALL THE HARM POSSIBLE, GO HOME TO BEST-

THE CHAMPION REPUDIATORS. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] NASHVILLE, Jan. 31, 1879.

The Tennessee Legislature to-day took a recess until February 11. This recess was partially taken until February 11. This recess was partially taken for the ostensible purpose of allowing a committee to investigate alleged frauds in the issuance of State bonds, which three democratic Legislatures have already passed upon and indorsel by funding them. But the most pertinent reason for the recess is the remarkable change of sentiment wrought by the suits brought against railroads and the namby pamby course the Legislature has pursued with reference to the State deut, which, it is generally believed, would have been settled had Governor Porter's recommendation to compromise its liabilities been heeded. In an effort to further cultivate popular favor the Legislature has overreached itself by reducing the salaries of public offi-cers throughout the State to beggarly sums, not-

The members of the Assembly now return home to see what their constituents think of their twenty days of legislation. The republicans are using Gov. ernor Marks' message as campaign literature, and to hat end are forwarding it to all portions of the forth. It is understood here that Maryland is the Southern State which it is proposed shall bring suit against Tennessee upon $50,000 of funded interest bonds, which will be given to the Peabody Institute of Baltimore for the purpose of making a test case in the United States Supreme Court, which has origi-nal jurisdiction in such suits between States.

WILLIAM HANSON.

Wm. Hanson, for six years past a reporter attached to the Baltimore Agency of the New York Associated Press, died yesterday morning of consumption, after a lingering illness, aged 22 years. He was faithful and punctual in the discharge of his duties.

REMINISCENCES OF LOPEZ.

Mr. Porter C. Bliss delivered before the Liberal Club last evening a lucid and picturesque lecture, flecked with light touches of humor, concerning his personal reminiscences of the Reign of Terror with personal reminiscences of the Reign of Terror with whick Lopez afflicted that country. The audience was singularly interested. The lecturer proceeded to describe his arrest and torture on a charge of conspiring to assassinate Lopez. The lamentable story was lightened by an account of the book that his torturers forced him to compile, accusing Mr. Washburne, the United States Minister, of having organized the imaginary conspiracy, and nobody enjoyed this recital more than Mr. Washburne himself, who sat on the platform and supplemented the lecture with a severe comment on the treatment Mr. Bliss received from the naval officers who were the unwilling instruments of his release.

BISMARCK DENOUNCED.

A mass meeting of German and other citizens of Brooklyn opposed to the measures of repression and persecution recently enforced in Germany at the instigation of Prince Bismarck was held last evening at Phenix Hall, Court street. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the course of Prince Bismarck, and expressing the sympathy of the meeting with the oppressed Germans in the fatherland. After speeches by various socialistic leaders and others the meeting adjourned.

SHED FOR LIBEL.

Michael Lawless, editor of the Kearney (N. J.) Record, was yesterday taken into custody on a charge of sending of scene literature through the mails. He is accused of publishing a copy of his paper containing a poem of twenty-nine verses reflecting on John O'Sullivan, the Alderman who was last week convicted of barratry. Mr. Lawless was admitted to ball for trial.

THE BROADWAY FIRE.

The investigation made yesterday of the losses by the fire at Nos. 483 and 485 Broadway the previous night goes to confirm the estimate published in the Hebald—$75,000. ARRESTED AND CLUBBED.

Thomas Wilson, eighteen years of age, residing at No. 194 Mott street, stole a bundle of shirts last night from a showcase in front of No. 613 Broadway. Officer Leary, of the Fifteenth precinct, captured the thief at the corner of Bond street and Broadway. The lad still clung to the stolen shirts, but offered no resistance. The officer, however, clubbed the boy on the head, imacting severe scalp w mids. When taken to the station house the prisoner was bleeding profusely. His wounds were dressed and he was subsequently consigned to a cell.

THE ROW IN BLISSVILLE.

The young man, Johnny Meyers, of Blissville, Long Island, who was seriously injured in a row with George Pantry and Audrew Haggerty on Thursday, is still in a precarious condition. He said to a HERALD reporter yesterday:—"I was coming home from Louis acther's. After awhile little Charley Cormage can in and said that Stevenson wanted me to go down at once and see him. I went down and I saw him nothing Fantry and Haggerty. I called out to Haggerty to keep back, and that if he hit Stevenson I'd hit him. Stevenson was getting the best of George, and I said to Lou, was getting the best of George, and I said to Lou. Don't hold him down, give him a fair show.' Lou said, 'I'll give him a fair show,' getting up at the same time. George struck Johnny with his fist, and I said, 'If you do that again I'll give you hell.' I knocked down George, and there was a regular scrimmage. Then it was I was hit with the brick."

The young man was lying flat on his back, with numerous bandages aroung his head. Drs. Peer and Hitchcock had been in attendance on him, and the remarkable fact was disclosed that after removing a portion of the abrased and broken skull the brain was seen actively working inside, while the individual discoursed without pain and with judgment,

A LADY CATTLE DEALER.

[From the Kinsey (Kansas) Graphic, Jap. 25.1 Report comes from the range that a woman is don that country in male attire. She represents herself to be the nephew of August Belmont and the son of good talker. A few days ago she sold and made a contract to deliver 3,000 head of cattle to a dealer, well known in this city, on Soldier Creek. She ma raise of $600 at Russell, Kansas, in a way best known to herself, and from there went to Larned where she expected to make a big haul in some kind of speculation, but failed, and went South on the range. We learn from a gentleman where she stayed all night that she admitted herself to be a fraud, but denied that she was a woman. She has a travelling companion, a young man, who says that this great cattle dealer is a woman, and he knows it. California and Missouri have been giving their reports of females doing their States in female attire, and we are glad to see Kansas toe the mark while such things are all the go. of speculation, but failed, and went South on the
